this incident

Our first job after getting back to Melia Island,

is to report everything that happened in Turkey to the Grand Master

the knighthood shouldn't be puzzled!

Regardless of the Turkish rumours that destroy Acel's
reputation,

Yet I believe Acel

Acel,
the Ninth
Branch Commander,

was acting
under my command.

the pirate
Dragon Beas

Though I have no idea how long it will take to complete this hard task.

Ugh!

whilst heading back from Turkey

They split with us and set off to Algiers

Lucius and Hercules have already taken action secretly

Regarding this,

The most urgent task now is to figure out how to save Axel there is the only place where we can find out where Axel and Dragut are.

Yes, though it's a very dangerous move,

Algiers. The base of the Barbary Pirates?

The Turkish Empire

Initially, we were thinking of tagging along, but there's something else more urgent than that.

Just
say...?

What
did you...

because the rest of us must give our all...

The mission of saving Aiel can only be handed over to Lucas and Hercules,

To deal with the approaching
Turkish
army

and prevent Malta
Island
from falling!

In front of the Gibraltar Strait at least once in my lifetime

I thought that I must visit
the sea

Father said he wanted to visit the sea in front of the Gibraltar Strait.

There was such legend
in Europe,

Back then,
I decided that I would definitely go
with him.

When Christopher
Columbus
arrived at the far east

I never thought
I would visit
this place
like way

But...

wind
changed.

that

HUH?!

In the island
we're going to in summer all your long so people there are always asked like Adam and Eve from Eden

It
actually got warmer

Hehe

Captain...
you'll be hated
by the Princess making jokes
like that

I have to make with the pirate
who killed
my father

I wish I have such pretty fur
like you, Hera

Because I broke
the rules of the pirates,

Changing
is just a common behavior

but living
reiked as too
uncivilized,
it's not my cup of tea.

I'd like to avoid doing so if possible

Ah... is that so...

Seems like
he's pouring salt on my wounds.

because she thinks
that she's a man.
How unreasonable!

Acid also doesn't
mind
changing
in front of me.

That sort of thing is totally unrelated to delivering a child

I'll
never be feminine,
plus...

I want to make you feminine before we arrive at the island

I'd like
if you
develops
the awareness of being silly.

What sort of married life are they living?

Seriously
these two

Can't
imagine it

Who?

Did you feel nothing when you slept with Lucina?

have opinions on delivering children is astonishing

That you,
who are never interested in these kind of things,

since Lucas is a doctor, he can definitely
take good care
of children.

Hmm...
It doesn't sound
bad...

You just put such a worried
face.

Huh?

So, in plain

Aerith's parenting theory is -
"Dad takes care of everything"

I have lots of expectations.

Nevertheless,
we'll reach
the island in two or three days.

Three
days...

And I'm going to become this man's "wife"

All
Almos',
be my opponent!

I want to practice here to wield!

Yes!

Three
days
are left before we can go.

Since he had worked on night shifts before, so there will be no problem even if the child cries
at night.

Lucas can certainly bring the child up
properly.

I've think about father

Or the pride and dream of being a knight

How
surprising

His
swallowing
skills improve
every day

As long as I get out of the feelings

Don't suffer
my first sword

I should practice to swell as well

My body feels rusty

I'll forget that I fell in love with Lucas

If I forget
all that,

will I be able to fall in love with this talented
swordsman,
Dragon?

Will I change
and live on like any other person?

North Africa - Algiers

If I forget
about

all the happiness
I had in the past

would
I end up
living

of my

I'll never come back again!

What exactly do you want from me?

What, what for?

and you are harassing me, right?

We are wondering where Dragut is.

Maybe I should ask to those fingers

One or two things, right?

Even the lowest class crowd would also know

I know nothing!

I'm just a low class partner!

No, you're wrong

Please let me go!

Stop it!

Stop

Let me do it.

Hercules

Hmm.

Should I start cutting from the pinky?

Where
the hell is Dragut?

Speak!

Fluffy
Fluffy

Wah!!

Captain's
ship

Is heading towards the sea in

Gibraltar
Strait!

anyone...

But
you...

Wahh!!

If I tell you,
you can't tell anyone that it was me who told
you!

It's said that captain's bride
is going to bear
his children on that island...

There is an island located somewhere in the sea in front of the Gibraltar Street. And
that's where the Captain's wife is.

I heard about that from a sailor...

Not long ago,
the Captain's
ship pulled into the Algiers'
shore for supplies...

I...
I don't know!

Hey!
Where
is that sword?

Only saying that it's in front of the Ghazal isn't enough!
That place is huge!

I can't know!

Only the old members of the crew
know where captain's valis is. '

I'm

in the

She will be

And we

you!

It's already midnight while thinking about all these.
